

Student Portfolio Academic Award CALL FOR ENTRIES

The IIDA Northern Pacific Chapter is proud to present the student portfolio academic award, sponsored by: Wilsonart®

To help students begin thinking about a full portfolio by senior year, by considering process, graphics, and communication skills

definition

A portfolio is a living document that represents your growth... expect it to evolve! It will get better as your skills and knowledge improve. Your portfolio is a personal and professional representation of your work, both graphically and verbally.

eligibility

Open to students who have completed at least one year of an undergraduate Interior Design program in Alaska, Washington, Idaho, Alberta, or British Columbia.

resource

Portfolio Design, Harold Linton
